St Patrick's Missionary Society was founded on St Patrick's Day 1932 and for more than eighty years has continued the work of spreading the Gospel worldwide. Their Irish headquarters is in Kiltegan, Co Wicklow and their charitable & missionary work is principally based in South America and throughout Africa. Many Irish households are familiar with their monthly publication the Africa magazine. They have been granted permission by Bishop Smith to take up a collection this weekend though out the Diocese of Meath in support of their charitable and missionary work abroad. In Dunboyne/Kilbride parish we are pleased to welcome Kiltegan priest Fr. Noel McHenry who will be preaching at our liturgies this weekend.
