Weakness, Sinfulness and Praying to the God of Truth

Our frailty does not disqualify us from prayer. The falls which leave me feeling ashamed and humbled, the weakness which betrays me into betraying God, and the general slum my inner life seems to be when I survey it in his presence: all these I can directly bring to him. They are his business, because they are part of my poverty and he delights in the poor. He invites me down the shaky ladder of pretence, as Jesus invited Zacchaeus down from his sycamore tree, and—like Zacchaeus—I have everything to gain by accepting the invitation.

Maria Boulding OSB, Gateway to Hope: an Exploration of Failure (London: Fount, 1985), 126.

Apostolic Nuncio Archbishop Charles Brown opened the Holy Door of Mercy at St Patrick's Basilica, Lough Derg to inaugurate the Jubilee of Mercy pilgrimage season. Lough Derg Prior, Fr Owen McEaney, said the island shrine was a sacred space of mercy and everyone was invited to "Come and let God's mercy find you on Lough Derg. During 2016, I invite pilgrims into a new commitment: if you are seeking time out from the daily grind of the everyday to come and walk in the footsteps of our forebears. Lough Derg reaches out to those in need: whatever your creed, background, personal circumstances or religious practice, everyone is most welcome. It is a special sanctuary of peace and personal challenge. There are no outsiders here: everyone is equal," he said.

Anyone interested in accompanying Lauren Flood and Noleen Fallon on a three day pilgrimage to Lough Derg, from Thursday, 14th July to Saturday, 16th July. Please contact the Parish Office as soon as possible.

Altar Servers (2th – 10th July): Ailbhe Kennedy, Cait Brady, Romy Cosgrove.
