Charity takes time. Wisdom of the heart means showing solidarity with our brothers and sisters while not judging them. Charity takes time. Time to care for the sick and time to visit them. Time to be at their side like Job's friends: "And they sat with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great" (Job 2:13). Yet Job's friends harboured a judgement against him: they thought that Job's misfortune was a punishment from God for his sins. True charity is a sharing which does not judge, which does not demand the conversion of others; it is free of that false humility which, deep down, seeks praise and is self-satisfied about whatever good it does.

A holy time. Wisdom of the heart means being with our brothers and sisters. Time spent with the sick is holy time. It is a way of praising God who conforms us to the image of his Son, who "came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mt 20:28). Jesus himself said: "I am among you as one who serves" (Lk 22:27).

I Wake Close to Morning

Why do people keep asking to see
God's identity papers
when the darkness opening into morning
is more than enough?
Certainly any god might turn away in disgust.
Think of Sheba approaching
the kingdom of Solomon.
Do you think she had to ask,
"is this the place?"

Mary Oliver, Felicity (2015)

The parish wishes to acknowledge with gratitude the installation pro bono of new kitchen facilities in the Old School by Gary Byrne (Gecko Catering Equipment). These up-to-date facilities, which are compliant with all Health and Safety standards, allow for the continuing provision of Meals on Wheels services to some members of our community who live alone and are housebound.

We wish to thank all the volunteers who give generously of their time throughout the year to ensure the smooth running of this service. If you know of anybody who would benefit from this service please contact the parish office.

The parish also wishes to acknowledge the very generous donation by a parishioner which paid for the re-lining of the parish car park and the marking of the clearways in the church grounds. We would ask parishioners not to park in these clearways so as to allow vehicular access in case of emergency.
