Perhaps the voice of Karl Rahner—theologian and priest—might cause or contribute to a glimpsing of another horizon.

The priest is not an angel sent from heaven.

He is a human being, a member of the Church, a Christian.

Remaining human and Christian, he begins to speak to you the word of God.

This word is not his own. No, he comes to you because God has told him to proclaim God's word.

Perhaps he has not entirely understood it himself.

Perhaps he adulterates it. Perhaps he falters and stammers.

How else could he speak God's Word, ordinary person that he is?

But must not someone of us say something about God, about eternal life, about the majesty of grace in our sanctified being;

must not someone of us speak of sin, the judgement and mercy of God?

So my dear friends, pray for him.

Carry him so that he might be able to sustain others by bringing to them the mystery of God's love revealed in Christ Jesus.

To celebrate the Jubilee Year of Mercy, a parish pilgrimage to seven churches in Dublin will take place on Saturday, 17th September, 2016. Further details later.

NEW ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED: We invite boys and girls who have made their First Holy Communion this year and indeed older boys and girls to think about becoming an Altar Server. It is a great way of helping out at Mass. It is also a very special way of showing how much we love God. If you are interested please talk to your parents/guardians about this and then with them collect a Consent Form from Irene in the Sacristy or the Parish Office.

All current servers must fill in their Consent Forms for 2015. Please return all signed Consent Forms a.s.a.p.

Altar Servers (20th – 28th August): Ruby McFeat Niamh Sherlock, Kate Stewart, Melissa Grogan.

A Matter of the Heart.

Marriage is the experience of belonging completely to another person. Spouses accept the challenge and aspiration of supporting one another, growing old together, and in this way reflecting God's own faithfulness. This firm decision, which shapes a style of life, is an "interior requirement of the covenant of conjugal love" (Pope John Paul II), since "a person who cannot choose to love for ever can hardly love for even a single day" (Pope John Paul II). At the same time, such fidelity would be spiritually meaningless were it simply a matter of following a law with obedient resignation. Rather, it is a matter of the heart, into which God alone sees (cf. Matt 5:28). Every morning, on rising, we reaffirm before God our decision to be faithful, come what may in the course of the day. And all of us, before going to sleep, hope to wake up and continue this adventure, trusting in the Lord's help. In this way, each spouse is for the other a sign and instrument of the closeness of the Lord, who never abandons us: "Lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age" (Matt 28:20).

Pope Francis, The Joy of Love.
