Speaking on need for peace Pope Francis reflects:

"The war is far away?" asked the Pope. "No! It's very close" because "the war touches everyone... war begins in the heart."

"May the Lord grant us peace in our hearts," Pope Francis prayed. May He "take away all desire for greed, covetousness, for fighting. No! Peace, peace!" the Pope exclaimed again. So that "our heart is the heart of a man or woman of peace. And beyond the divisions of religions: everyone, everyone, everyone!"

To encourage congregational singing we ask you to please join in singing the entrance hymn for this evening:

"All People That On Earth Do Dwell"

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.
The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make.
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

Oh, enter, then, His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always.
For it is seemly so to do.
For why? The Lord, our God, is good;
His mercy is forever sure.
His truth at all times firmly stood
And shall from age to age endure.

Feast of St Teresa of Jesus , Saturday 15th October

Christ has no body now, but yours.
No hands, no feet on earth, but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which he looks
With compassion on this world.

Let nothing disturb you.
Let nothing frighten you.

All things pass away:
God never changes.

Patience obtains all things.
Those who have God
Find they lack nothing;
God alone suffices.

Church Ecumenism: This week Pope Francis met with Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby and other Anglican Primates in Rome. Reflecting on the common journey of ecumenism in faith over the past fifty years Pope Francis observes: “the conviction has grown that ecumenism is never an impoverishment, but a richness; the certainty has deepened that what the Spirit has sown in the other yields a common harvest. Let us treasure this inheritance and know that we are called each day to offer to the world, as Jesus asked, the witness of our love and unity (cf. Jn 15:12; 17:21)”.
We pray that we will always recall in Christian love that what unites us, Christ our Redeemer, will always be greater than what divides us.
