Advent Psalm

To you o lord, I lift my soul; Come, O Lord, and set us free

Lord, this Advent help us in faith to anticipate your coming. Help us to take moments of calm and peace to reflect on your coming anew to each of us. We recall with thanksgiving that you bring light in any darkness, love in any hurt, compassion to any regret, mercy to any sin, and healing to any need. Remind us that you have brought salvation and redemption to all who believe and follow you. Help us always to look on others with your divine gaze of welcome and love. As we light the candles of our wreath, we pray that your presence will be the lamp that illuminates our path in life.

Advent 1955

The Advent wind begins to stir
With sea-like sounds in our Scotch fir
It's dark at breakfast, dark at tea,
And in between we only see
Cloud hurrying across the sky.

The world seems travelling into space,
And travelling at a faster pace.
For now we feel the world spin round
On some momentous journey bound-
Journey to what? To whom? To where?
The Advent bells call out 'Prepare,
Your world is journeying to the birth
Of God made Man for us on earth'
