The washing of the feet – Jesus on bended knee, imploring us for friendship

- Let God (the thief) enter and be as extravagant as possible.
- Let God enter (as grace) and let me not limit God to what I think I deserve.
- Let God enter (as truth) to rob me of my false ideas.

St. Therese at the end of her days was in a conversation with her Reverend Mother who asked was she afraid to die. St. Therese replied: “The thief is not at the door; he has already entered. How can I fear the one I love.”

Sometimes we can cling to a God of grace and not of truth. We miss the truth of who God really is. God can be seen as Santa Claus with only an abundance of grace. Grace and Truth are inseparable. “Do not come to me as grace alone”

– Bernard of Clairvaux

If God comes as grace and truth we cannot hide from ourselves.

Veronica. So often in our daily decisions, there is a faint whisper that adds to the common voice of the crowd. Veronica, however, invites us to take a different path: to be concerned for our neighbour, to be courageous, and to love in a tangible, concrete way. Little things do matter and can mean so much. At this station the small and insignificant are given an eternal significance. One of the greatest weaknesses of our time is indifference, indifference to the plight of others: the refugee, the homeless, the addict, the lost, the young, the despairing, the lonely, and the elderly.

Trocaire on Palm Sunday: “They took branches of palm and went out to receive him, shouting: ‘Hosanna! Blessed is he who is coming in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel.’” John, 12:13. The palm is a symbol of peace and on this Palm Sunday we pray for the millions of people around the world who are affected by conflict and have had to flee with their families to face an uncertain future. Trócaire is working in many areas of conflict to ensure people have a chance of a better future. Find out more about the Lenten campaign at www.trocaire.org/lent

This coming week we will enter the most sacred week of the Church’s liturgical year: Holy Week. At the climax of this week, we will celebrate the Sacred Triduum, three days that form a single feast: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. Most of us think of these days as three separate feasts, each independent of the other. But nothing could be further from the truth. The Sacred Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil form a single feast whereby we participate in the Paschal Mystery of Christ’s death and resurrection.

Rosettes for Confirmation and First Holy Communion available in Parish Shop.
