SMA: The Society of African Missions was founded in France in 1856 & when it was established in Ireland in 1878 it was the first exclusively missionary congregation to send out missionaries from Ireland. The main mission of the SMA is in Africa where members work in 17 countries. Today, there are about 900 members and about 270 seminarians preparing to be missionaries. We asks for the support of prayers for the success of its missionary works. Our greatest needs are funds to educate our seminarians & to continue work among the poorest people on earth. Fr. Martin Kavanagh SMA will speak at all Masses, next weekend.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION: We congratulate the children from Kilbride Junior School who celebrate this weekend. We assure them of our prayers, and thank all those in Scoil Bhríde, who helped in preparation for the ceremonies.

Funeral Homily | from Madeleine Delbr el

The following is the beginning of a rather amazing reflection on the character of the gospel from this French lay-woman (1904–64).

“The gospel is the book of the Lord’s life. It is there to become the book of our life. It is not there to be understood, but to be approached as the threshold of mystery. It is not there to be read, but to be received within us” * [* like the Eucharist]. Each of its words is spirit and life. ...
