Croagh Patrick: Every year on Reek Sunday thousands of people climb this Holy Mountain. Every day of the year many more people undertake the climb. You are welcome to join Monsignor Dermot in a parish pilgrimage to Croagh Patrick on Saturday 2nd September. It's not about being super fit! It's more about taking time for personal reflection and prayer in the footsteps of St. Patrick, who, long ago, did penance before God in climbing this mountain. For details and to book please contact the Parish Office: 8255342.

“The grace and practice of contemplation, although undoubtedly something wondrous in itself, does not consist of a magical technique that will allow us to transcend the limits of our humanity, while somehow ignoring the reality of our human weakness. No – in spiritual life, the actual place, ‘where all ladders start’ – the place of grace – is a place of weakness or fallenness. And that’s why we can say that every sinner has a future and every saint has a past. No one, I think, has described the beginning stage of ‘falling’ with more vividness than St. Augustine of Hippo. Looking back with regret on his own sinful past, Augustine exclaims in one of his prayers: ‘You were within me, [my God], and I was in the world outside myself. I searched for you outside myself and, disfigured as I was, I fell upon the lovely things of your creation.”

Paul Murray, OP In the Grip of Light, p 31.
