St Augustine of Hippo, Bishop and Doctor of the Church.

Feast Day : Monday August 28th.

Speaking on prayer this great Saint reminds us that prayer is not mere sound or words – he considers it instead to be the articulation of love.

'He who prays with desire sings in his heart, even though his tongue be silent. But if he prays without desire he then is dumb before God, even though his voice sounds in the ears of men. I may be wanting in sound but never let me be wanting in love. As the ears of men are attentive to our lips, so are the ears of God inclined to our hearts. How many there are whose lips are silent, but whose love is eloquent; So many are heard though their lips do not move; and many are left unanswered in spite of their noisy clamour. We ought then to pray with our affections.' (from On the Psalms).

We express sincere thanks of the entire parish community to the Dunboyne Men's Shed, for their tidying and cleaning in Rooske Cemetery, this past week. We invite all to maintain their family plots in good order, as is an appropriate and befitting memorial of our deceased loved ones.
