PRAYING FOR THE DEAD AND THE LIST OF THE DEAD: Traditionally November is the month for commemorating our dead. In doing so we follow the sacred tradition since the earliest days of the Christian community to remember the dead at the Altar. That is why Catholics have a venerable tradition of having Masses offered for the souls of the departed. The whole month of November are traditionally devoted to the Holy Souls. We do not live alone, we do not sin alone and we are not saved alone. Our lives are intertwined, spill into one another's, for better or worse. My prayer for another is not something external to him or her even after death; in the interconnectedness of being, my prayer can play a part in the purification of the other. During the month of November and on the First Friday of each month, Mass will be offered for all those who have been included on the parish list of the dead. Please use the sheets and the envelope marked "List of the Dead" provided in the porches of the Churches or simply use any envelope and write "List of the Dead" on it. Place your list, together with your donation in the steel boxes in our churches.

The Son of God

He said, 'Art thou the Son of God?' expecting 'Thou has said it' – or some such words from a humble man ashamed to admit That he too would shoot down Pleasure's singing birds.
But I took my heart in my hands and showed it Constricted by selfish muscles and I denied
That I was prepared to die for the sins of men;
And he tore the dust of death that was his hair and said I lied
'He's great, he's God!' he ran through the streets telling Everybody that would listen. I was enticed
To accept. But I dashed over the hills when they hammered the cross –
The Christ that won't die is a mean Christ.
Out beyond Calvary I found myself a house
And lived there in comfort. But I could hear Often on summer evenings from the desserts of the heart
Of man the cry for the blood of God's only Son.

Patrick Kavanagh

Prayer for Eternal Life.

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening into the house and gate of heaven; to enter into that gate and dwell in that house, where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling, but one equal light; no noise nor silence, but one equal music;
no fears nor hopes, but one equal possession; no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity; in the habitations of your glory and dominion, world without end. Amen.

(John Donne, 1572-1631)
